

Job title: Health Specialty Instructor

Education: Master's degree in Public Health OR Bachelor's degree in Public Health with 5 years of working experience.

Job Responsibilities:

Require Health Specialty Instructor with healthcare background to plan, evaluate, and revise curricula, course materials, and methods of instruction; compile, administer, and grade exams; prepare and deliver lectures to the students on healthcare specialty courses; prepare course materials; maintain student attendance, grades, and other required records; observe and evaluate student's performance; prepare students for careers in healthcare fields; assist in clinical laboratory sessions; work with sonography modalities; keep abreast of developments in the healthcare field by reading current literature and participating in professional conferences; assist school with community outreach for health promotion. Required Master's degree in Public Health. Mail resume to AIMS Education, 4500 New Brunswick Ave, Piscataway, NJ 08854. AIMS is an EOE.